

You can help by signing up with a donation of $25 or get sponsors to help you reach your goal. The more sponsors you can acquire the more help we can give to those in need and the more scholarships we can provide to those students wanting to attend college.

All proceeds will go to the charities or foundations listed on the inside of this brochure.

The Grand Lodge of Colorado and the Colorado Foundation thank you for your support.

ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION

An estimated 5.1 million Americans have Alzheimer's disease and of that number, thirteen percent are 65 years or older. Nearly fifty percent of Americans over 85 suffer from this disease and seventy percent of these patients live at home. More alarming still is that the number of Alzheimer's cases could rise to 16 million in the next four decades.

OSIA COLORADO FOUNDATION

The Sons of Italy Colorado Foundation was formed in 2004 to grant graduating seniors of Italian heritage the opportunity to attend the college of their choice. Five $1,500 scholarships are given yearly to young men and women from across the state of Colorado.

COOLEY'S ANEMIA

For over 50 years, the Cooley's Anemia Foundation has been a strong partner for families living with thalassemia. OSIA has been an invaluable partner in CAF's dedicated mission in advancing the treatment and cure for this fatal blood disease, enhancing the quality of life of patients and educating the medical profession, trait carriers and the public about Cooley's anemia/thalassemia major.

DOUG FLUTIE 'S FOUNDATION FOR AUTISM

The goal of the Flutie Foundation is to improve the quality of life for people and families living with autism.

We are dedicated to increasing the awareness of autism and the unique challenges of families who are faced with it everyday. Our commitment is to support these families by helping them find the resources they need and by funding advocacy programs as well as educational, therapeutic and recreational opportunities.

CARUSO FAMILY CHARITIES

Caruso Family Charities is a 501(c)(3) dedicated to financially assisting families who have a child suffering with cancer. Caruso Family Charities help mainly Colorado families but also families of children being treated in Colorado. They partner with the Rocky Mountain Childhood Cancer Foundation to cover a range of needs for these families.
